

Introduction Suggestions

Instead of reciting Chair Nathan Fletcher’s entire biography to introduce him at your event, we have prepared abbreviated versions for you to use. If one of the introductions below won’t work, please let us know and we might be able to create a custom introduction for your event.

Standard Introduction

Nathan Fletcher is the Chair of the San Diego County Board of Supervisors. He was elected in 2019 and generated almost 100 substantive policy changes in just two years. His policies to build a better behavioral health services system, tackle climate change, fight for environmental justice, make racial justice and equity a County priority; and improve the circumstances for children, working families and immigrants has taken the County in a new direction.

Prior to his election to the Board of Supervisors, Nathan Fletcher showed a commitment to public service and leadership in tackling some of our toughest challenges. His life experiences range from leading classified human intelligence missions in combat zones and being decorated for valor under fire, to passing landmark legislation as a member of the California State Legislature, to training Nobel Prize winning human rights activists in the developing world.

In 2021 he’s creating a Framework for the Future of San Diego County. The Framework prioritizes communities and populations in San Diego that have been historically left behind. Through this Framework, Chair Fletcher is fighting for: racial justice, health equity, economic opportunity, environmental protection, government transparency, and fundamental changes to county operations.

Please Join me in welcoming Nathan Fletcher, Chair of the San Diego County Board of Supervisors.

Behavioral Health Introduction

Nathan Fletcher is the Chair of the San Diego County Board of Supervisors. He was elected in 2019 and generated almost 100 substantive policy changes in just two years. His policies to build a better behavioral health services system, fight for environmental justice, make racial justice and equity a County priority; and improve the circumstances for children, working families and immigrants has taken the County in a new direction.

Behavioral Health is Chair Fletcher’s highest priority as a policymaker. It is the intersection of mental health and drug treatment services. He is working to fix a system that is fragmented. His vision is to build a patient-centered, care coordination system that ensures those in need get the right care, at the right time and most importantly get the right outcomes to improve their lives.

Please join me in welcoming Nathan Fletcher, Chair of the San Diego County Board of Supervisors.

Environmental Introduction

Nathan Fletcher is the Chair of the San Diego County Board of Supervisors. He was elected in 2019 and generated almost 100 substantive policy changes in just two years. His policies to build a better behavioral health services system, fight for environmental justice, make racial justice and equity a County priority; and improve the circumstances for children, working families and immigrants has taken the County in a new direction.

Fighting climate change, enacting policies to improve air quality and working to ensure the County of San Diego has a legal, community supported; climate action plan with reliable data and modeling is one of his highest priorities.

Chair Fletcher is also leveraging his positions as the Governor’s appointee on the California Air Resources Board, his service on the Governing Board for the San Diego County Air Pollution Control District and his responsibilities as Chair of the Metropolitan Transit System’s Board of Directors, to fight for environmental justice.

Please join me in welcoming Nathan Fletcher, Chair of the San Diego County Board of Supervisors.

Veteran Introduction

Nathan Fletcher is the Chair of the San Diego County Board of Supervisors. He is a proud United States Marine Corps combat veteran. While in service to our Country, he led classified human intelligence missions in combat zones and is decorated for valor under fire.

Today, Chair Fletcher’s creating a Framework for the Future of San Diego County. The Framework prioritizes communities and populations in San Diego that have been historically left behind. Through this Framework, Chair Fletcher is fighting for: racial justice, health equity, economic opportunity, environmental protection, government transparency, and fundamental changes to county operations.

Please join me in welcoming Nathan Fletcher, Chair of the San Diego County Board of Supervisors.